FAQ's

How do I earn tiering credits and get into levels?

Easy! Just use your membership card when making any purchase within the Club.

What are Tiering credits?

Tiering credits are earnt throughout the club but have no monetary value. They are used only for determining Bowlo Reward levels.

How do I know what level I am in?

Ask any of our Staff.

When do I move up a level?

Your level is based on the accrual of tiering credits you've earned over the past three months. As soon as you reach the required amount, your upgrade will happen automatically.

Can I drop out of a level?

Yes - tier downgrades take place on 1st October and 1st April. You can only move down one tier at a time, based on your accrual of tiering points earned in the previous three months.

What are Bonus points?

Bonus points can be earnt and won throughout the club. They can be spent at the bar, Engadine Grill and to purchase gift cards at reception. Bonus points have a value of 1 point = 1 cent.

Bonus points can be checked at our Members Kiosk, at any bar or at Engadine Grill. Alternatively, ask any of our friendly team members and they will be able to assist you.

Do Bonus points expire?

Yes - all bonus points expire at close of business on 30th June each year. However, members in the Gold and Diamond levels are exempt from points expiry.
